
Home > APP content > Civil emergencies

Civil emergencies

Police forces require robust, yet flexible, emergency planning arrangements to meet the requirements of the Civil Contingencies Act 2004, and to facilitate a professional, structured response to any emergency, regardless of the cause.

This APP \(\) module covers civil contingencies, and disaster victim identification.

It consolidates information from a variety of sources including decommissioned guidance, relevant legislation, the Strategic Policing Requirement, the National Policing Requirement and JESIP \(\) products.

First published: 23 October 2013 Last modified: 6 July 2020

BetterStandardsTM
for Better Policing

© College of Policing (2020). All content (excluding logos and photographs) is available for re-use under the Non-Commercial College Licence except where otherwise stated.